

The precious Valentino dress, dress sculptures of -La Rosa mannequins-

After the apotheosis Roman all'Ara Pacis last summer, to celebrate the forty-five years of house of Valentino, the Italian couturier has opened a few days ago "Thèmes and Variations" at the Museum Les Arts Décoratifs Louvre.

To celebrate this important milestone with the usual refinement that clearly distinguishes stylistic landscape in the world, were used again the collection of mannequins' heads with Opera More Charisma ': from sinuous lines and harmonious that best represent the sensual creations of house Valentino.

The collaboration between the Master and Gigi Rigamonti (exceptional sculptor and owner of the historic company La Rosa mannequins) goes back sixteen years ago, when the 'tailor for excellence' decided to delegate the task of creating specially for the anniversary of Trentanni di Magia ', sculptures that could even tell the elegance of models from precious plots.
